Westbury-on-Severn's Rugby Football Club 1st and 2nd XV squads have received new Raging Bull rugby shirts. Their kit was sponsored by Hamiltons Chartered Surveyors, a firm with a strong Gloucestershire presence and well known for their charitable donations.

The Westbury-on-Severn RFC was founded in 1987 so the much-needed shirts arrived in their 21st anniversary year, being presented to the club's founder, Ken Boulton, whose two sons are also players and whose daughter is the club secretary.

Player and Hamiltons partner Barry Hutchinson commented: "It is always a pleasure to put something back into the community, especially for a club that plays such a central role in Westbury itself."
